District Attorney Lisa Green made an announcement today regarding the sentencing of Robert Henry Dominguez. On February 9, 2018, a Kern County jury convicted Dominguez of one count of first degree murder, one count of witness intimidation using force or fear, one count of criminal threats, one count of petty theft, and one count of illegal possession of a firearm.

On March 4, 2017, Robert Henry Dominguez showed up at his estranged wife's house and took her .9mm handgun and loaded magazine without her permission. Dominguez went to the victim's trailer located in Delano. The victim was inside of his trailer with his girlfriend. Dominguez walked up to the front of the trailer and called the victim outside. The victim stepped outside where Dominguez shot and killed him. The victim's girlfriend stepped outside and Dominguez forced her to the ground and threatened to kill her if she cooperated with law enforcement. Dominguez fled the scene and but was later apprehended by law enforcement.

On March 13, 2018, Robert Henry Dominguez was sentenced to 105 years to life in prison by the Honorable Superior Court Judge Judith K. Dulcich.
